Please note: This form shall be posted in a visible location for all Union members to see. The form shall remain in place for a minimum of one week (non-continuous shift), or one complete shift rotation (continuous shift) so that all members have the opportunity to view it. In the event that the current Chief Shop Stewards for a work location, in consultation with LL99's president determine that the number of nominations is in excess of what is desired for the location, an election will be held.

This form can also be used for mid-term or partial-term steward nominations but needs to be emailed to the address below at the end of the period listed above.

*Please scan this completed form and email to nominations@iamaw99.ca
This form must be emailed to the above address on or before July 31 of the election year.*
