2025 Finning Bargaining Committee Update

To all Finning Members:

Over the summer your Bargaining Committee has worked with Finning and mediator Debora Howes to come close to a tentative agreement. With only a few items left to be settled before we have a memorandum, we felt the necessity to let everyone know we are nearing the finish line.

At this point we'd like to thank you for your patience. We understand the stress that members may feel and how difficult it can be to put your trust in us. It's been our responsibility to keep your best interests in mind at the bargaining table.

Negotiating a collective agreement both parties can agree upon takes time and as soon as we've agreed to the last few items, we will let you know!

Once we have a memorandum we will schedule meeting dates for all members to attend. Our plan is to reach as much of the membership in person however, some of these meetings will be virtual in order to ensure all members have an opportunity to hear the changes from us before casting a vote.

Stay Tuned and Stay Safe!!

In Solidarity,

Your Bargaining Committee
